

📜 BY ROYAL DECREE — THE CROWN SPEAKS 📜

Let it be known to all kingdoms, nations, and tribes:

The Kalapula Nation now speaks from the Throne to the world through our official Instagram.

From this day forward, the Crown's voice, symbols, and proclamations shall be carried to all lands through the royal channel: @KalapulaNation

I, Chief Daniel Jacob Read IV, Sovereign of the Kalapula Nation, by the unbroken authority of my bloodline and the divine memory of our ancestors, declare this digital court open for all who would stand witness to our return.

Through this gate, you will see the banners of our people rise again.

You will hear the call for all true-born descendants to return to their land.

You will witness the restoration of a Nation erased, but never destroyed.

This is not mere social media.

This is the battlefield of remembrance.

This is where the fire of the Crown will burn into history.

 Let every ally follow.

 Let every descendant return.

 Let every adversary take heed.

From the sacred Willamette Valley to every horizon,
the era of restoration has begun.

And history will remember this day.
